WEEK 3: What does the King require? – Alan Graham

KEY TEXT: 2 Samuel 6:1-15

KEY THOUGHTS/THEMES:

How do we actually make room for God in our busy lives

KEY QUOTES:

If I had 1000 lives, China should have everyone. No not China but Christ. Can we do too much for Him, can we do enough for such a Saviour!?

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. What changes can I make to give God more room in my life?
2. What changes should I make?
3. Have I made any sacrifices for God recently?....ever?
4. Am I willing to remove my "ephod" for the cause of Christ?

Making room for God will always mean change
Making room for God demands a change of practice
Making room for God is the key to blessing
Making room for God means sacrifice
Making room for God will incur criticism

WEEK 3: What does the King require? – Priscilla Reid

KEY TEXT: Matthew 28:20, Luke 6:46-49

KEY THOUGHTS/THEMES:

How do we effectively live out the radical implications of Kingdom living together?

KEY QUOTES:

"You can't be a Kingdom person without being a church person and you can't be a church person without being a Kingdom person"

KEY QUESTIONS:

1. What do you understand is the connection between church and kingdom?
2. What does radical obedience look like to you?
3. How can we in practical ways corporately demonstrate the radical perspective of the Kingdom of God?
4. Who is my enemy, who has hurt me the most and what does it then mean to "love your enemies"?
5. In our relationships both inside and outside the church how do we live out Kingdom principles of inclusion and generosity?
